BEAUTY AND CHIVALRY
AT WAYNESBORO DANCE

Crowning Event of Week Is German Given in Honor of Charming

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WAYNESBORO, Va., August 28.—

The crowning event of this week was a delightful favor German given by Mrs. W. J. Loh and Mrs. Percy Loh in honor of Miss Elizabeth Clemmer, of Middlebrook. The spacious dining-room was converted into a dance hall prettily decorated with V. M. I. colors and evergreens. Prettier figures were never seen than those led by Miss Elizabeth Clemmer with Captain Balldinger, of Norfolk, and Miss Nell Talbot with J. D. Crule, Jr., of Staunton. March, waltz and two-step music with irresistible charm kept the dancers on the polished floor from the opening bar to the last note of "Home, Sweet Home." There was a full measure of beauty and chivalry, and a sound of revelry. Among the dancers: Miss Clemmer with Captain Balldinger; Miss Talbot with J. D. Crule, Jr.; Miss Mary Ellison with Marbrough Taylor; Miss Boyd with James Winston; Miss McClung with Dupont Geler; Miss Brackett with Pat Ellison; Miss Nettie Montoy with Richard Clemmer; Miss Dorothy Lettwith with Dick Cooney, Jr.; Mrs. Cooney with Albert Vance; Mrs. Morgan Shepherd with Maxwell Waddy; Miss Waddy with Harry Kams; Miss Louella Ware with Cecil Wright; Miss Price with Pat Ellison; Miss Annie Cooney with Richard Clemmer; Miss Mary Cooney with Will Talbot; Miss Virginia Riddle with Morris Loh; Miss Grace Vest with Charles Ellison; Miss Lottie Fox with Walter Williams; Miss Helen Corner with Jeff Loh; Miss Kitty Kolner with Elmer Cooney; Miss Mary Temple with Preston Clemmer; Miss Katherine Robertson with Trevelian Turner; Miss Waddy with J. Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lenard; Miss Katherine Given with Mr. Glass; Miss Gannaway with Carlington Williams; Miss Stagg with Mr. W. H. Perkins; Miss Perkins with Walter Ellison; Percy Loh, Mr. Royter, Mrs. J. Frank Clemmer and Mrs. Hugh Lyle presided at the punch bowl.

Delightful refreshments were served in the Loh home, which was prettily decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers.

The chaperons were: Mrs. Walter Williams, Mrs. Benj. Nash, Miss Hatcher, Mrs. John D. Clothier, Mrs. J. Frank Clemmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. Maupin, Miss Radford, Mr. Wright, Mrs. Garnett, Miss Watt, and Mrs. Starke left Saturday for Weyer's Cave, returning that night.

The little friends of Miss Elizabeth Chenery gathered together on Friday night to celebrate her fourteenth birthday. A birthday cake, with lighted candles and hand-painted place cards painted by Miss Bepa Frank added much to the occasion.

Miss Nancy Perkins has arrived to join her father, T. M. Perkins. She is quite attractive, and is making many friends among the younger set. Those registered in the past week: Miss Ida Steger, Richmond, Va.; G. H. Kuttell, North Carolina; Mrs. A. C. Langley, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. M. B. Morris, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Lewis Whitehouse, Richmond, Va.; Miss Elizabeth Kelley, Richmond, Va.; J. T. Parkinson, Richmond, Va.; C. W. Williams, Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Edwin H. EVERYTHING EN FETE
AT JEFFERSON PARK

A Profitable as Well as Interesting Visit of Young People to the McCormick Observatory.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 28.—Everything has been en fete during the past week at the Jefferson Park Hotel. The social schedule has been filled to overflowing, and every one enters into the many pleasures with enthusiasm.

Mrs. Edmund Benson, of Richmond, who is quite an expert bridge player, made the highest score at a bridge party given Wednesday morning.

On Thursday evening, Mrs. W. L. Murray, of Norfolk, who by her charming manner and attractive personality, has won the hearts of many, was hostess at a watermelon party given on the porch of the hotel.

Many high records have been made at the box ball alley recently. Those who made the highest scores for the past week are Miss Clara Spicer, Goldsboro, N. C.; Mrs. H. M. Bowen, Arlington, Va.; Miss Lizzie Goode, of Staunton, Va.; Miss Georgia Goodloe, Baltimore, Md., and B. F. Carter, Tampa, Florida.

Several of the young men from Charlottesville came out to the hotel on Friday morning and gave a cake feast in honor of Miss Dallas Lee. Marie Kolner, Lucille Massey, of Richmond, and Miss Bessie Murray, of Norfolk.

A Preep at the Moon.

S. B. Benson, of Maryland, was host at a most delightful supper at his camp on Wednesday evening, complimentary to the young ladies in the hotel. Later in the evening this enthusiastic crowd of young people visited the McCormick Observatory. The climb up the mountain was led by Rev. W. N. Tillingshast, who made the trip profitable and interesting. Upon their arrival the huge telescope was adjusted for a view of the moon and stars. After an interesting visit the party, amid song and laughter, descended the mountain by a circuitous path, which is noted for its beauty, and reached the hotel in time to join in the last waltzes of the evening.

Much to the regret of their many friends, Hollis Rinehart and his charming family, from Washington, D. C., have returned home.

Watermelon Feast.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the past week was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parr, of Staunton, Va., complimentary to their host and friends. On being invited into the spacious dining-room there was spread

Much to the regret of their many friends, Hollis Rinehart and his charming family, from Washington, D. C., have returned home.

Watermelon Feast.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the past week was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parr, of Staunton, Va., complimentary to their host and friends. On being invited into the spacious dining-room there was spread smooth to the swirling of water in the time of torrential rains, and remind one much of the glacier gardens of Lucerne, Switzerland. By next year we hope to have lighted for our guests another wonderful cave of great stalactites and stalagmites, and which contains a subterranean lake on which we may yet have boating, though we are not yet quite ready to have Charon row us across.

Good Fishing.

The fishing has been very good this summer. Fine strings of black bass have been caught in the James River near by, and rainbow trout in Natural Bridge Lake.

Picnic parties have been the order of the week, one following another in close succession up the beautiful canyon under the Natural Bridge. Other groups may be seen "putting on the green," while the devotees of tennis and croquet keep the balls in constant motion. Across the lawn is the bowling alley, where there seems a continuous performance, a good game being up for any hour of the day.

The delight of the swimming pool has never palled. People go in, hot or cold, never mind the weather, and come out like giants refreshed. A dive and a swim make one feel made over new. Captain John A. Coke and Mrs. Coke, of Richmond, are making an extended stay at Natural Bridge, and Mrs. C. B. Ivey have spent some time with us. Mr. and Mrs. Coke made up a driving party for a day in historic Lexington, an expedition much enjoyed by many of the guests of the Natural Bridge Hotel. A party of fifteen young people has planned to drive over by trolley to the Rockbridge Alum Springs, spend the night, and return next evening by moonlight.

A charming party, well known in Richmond, as Petersburg is such a near neighbor, consisting of Mrs. M. J. Darden, Mrs. M. J. Darden, Mrs. P. H. Booth and Lulu Barham, has been most popular guests, and with their beautiful and modish costumes have added no little to the brilliance of the ballroom. G. W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, entertained some of his friends at Natural Bridge this week with a delightful tallyho party, followed by a dinner.

Understudy of Nethercole's.

Miss Florence Huntington, the understudy of Olga Nethercole, the well-known actress, is spending her holiday with her mother at the Natural Bridge Hotel, and Miss Huntington thinks this resort has a wonderful future.

The new arrivals from Richmond this week include John D. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Root, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Root, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coke, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ivey, Fred Hurt, W. O. Boutill, Miss Ruby Mantell, W. G. Gibson, A. W. Baker, Master Garland Baker, Charles H. Gibbons, W. D. Hyams, Jr., J. H. Evans, H. W. Stone, Mrs. J. H. Mingo, Miss Susie Rutherford, Miss Nellie Jacobs, B. E. Pettus, Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman, Miss Laura Ryan. Miss P. H. Booth, of Petersburg, is a recent arrival.

"ATLANTIC CITY OF THE SOUTH"

So Is Called Ocean View Nowadays Because of Its Great and Growing Patronage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OCEAN VIEW, Va., August 28.—This popular resort has been the Mecca for thousands this season, the hotels and cottages being taxed to their fullest capacity to care for the many visitors, among whom there are many from the far South, while from above the Mason and Dixon's line there is a good representation also. Indeed, it seems that the central location of Ocean View is ideal as a matter of convenience, and the resort is called already the "Atlantic City of the South." Those who wish recreation, fishing, bathing and yachting, as well as those in search of amusements of all descriptions, may have their desires gratified here to the fullest extent. The Casino, which is open every night, affords amusement for thousands. The large dancing pavilion is probably the

"Baby's Never Ill"—Remedy FREE

Summer after summer Dr. Caldwell is in receipt of hundreds of letters from mothers all over the country thanking him for keeping their children in good health these hot days. The way is simple for any mother. If the child breaks out with sores, if it scratches itself, if it has no appetite and doesn't sleep well, if its bowels are constipated or too loose, do not become alarmed, but try a dose at bedtime of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. There is no remedy so effective in the digestive ailments of children, and so well liked by them for its pleasant taste and non-gripping, than this very same DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. Ask the druggist who has your confidence and he will tell you that more mothers are buying this remedy today than any other. It is not to be compared to the ordinary laxative, because this contains tonic properties that help to build up the child; nor is it to be compared to salts and purgative waters, for they do but temporary good, nor to tablets or pills, which often gripe and are difficult to take. It is especially the right remedy for women and old folks because of its gentle action. Your druggist will sell you a bottle for 50 cents or $1.00, according to size.

USE DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and would like to know the regular way of their druggist, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE of this remedy for themselves or any member of their family free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also, if you have any doubts as to the value of this remedy, or other remedies seem unable to overcome, write a letter to Dr. Caldwell explaining how the person suffers and he will give you his best MEDICAL ADVICE, based on half a century of experience in the treatment of all ailments of children, and so well liked by them for its pleasant taste and non-gripping, than this very same DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. The address is: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 527 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

OUT-OF-DOOR LIFE ORDER OF THE WEEK

Natural Bridge Has Visitors from All Parts of the World—"Isabella Starway"—Another Wonderful Cave.

NATURAL BRIDGE, Va., August 28.—This week has recorded arrivals by the hundreds, the guests registering from almost every State in the Union, and the foreign contingent have signed from Australia, Germany, Cuba and England, proving that the fame of this same marvel of nature, the Natural Bridge, is spreading to the ends of the earth.

There is already a touch of autumn in the air, and these crisp days induce many an out-of-door expedition, this place being unusually endowed with fresh beauty of nature. Our guests are taking great interest in investigating "Isabella Starway," which C. H. Paxton, the manager of the Natural Bridge Hotel, has lately had wired, so that it may be lighted with electricity, in order that its beauty and unique formation may be more fully appreciated. This starway is a succession of conical chambers, one succeeding another, from the top of a tall mountain down to its base beside the stream below. These chambers are worn

Our claim that the Bitters is a superior remedy in cases of Poor Appetite, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation, and Malaria has been positively proven during its 56 years before the public.
